JUDGMENT

On June 20, 2007, the Plaintiffs filed a Complaint for Damages against the above-named Defendants. Defendant Anthony V. Russell was properly served with a Summons and Complaint on or about June 26, 2007. No responsive pleadings have been filed by Defendant Russell. As a result, the Plaintiffs are entitled to a default judgment pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 9-11-55. On March 17, 2009 a bench trial was held to determine the issue of damages to the Plaintiffs as a result of Defendant Russell's murder of Plaintiff James Earl Timothy Staud and the aggravated assaults committed against Plaintiff Maryah Kok.

After hearing evidence, the Court hereby finds for the Plaintiffs against Defendant Anthony V. Russell in the following amounts:

James Staud's Estate: $7,729,000.00

Maryah Kok: $20,000,000.00

The Court further finds by clear and convincing evidence that an award for punitive damages is appropriate in the following amounts:

James Staud's Estate: $25,000,000.00

Maryah Kok: $25,000,000.00

This 17th day of March, 2009.
